Dear Hiring Manager

I am very much interested in your job post as a Web Developer. I consider myself as the right choice for you because I have the right skills and potential to match your needs. I am an established Web Developer with two (2) years of work experience and additionally a soon-to-be graduate in Application Development.

I have demonstrated my skills for clients in various industries, including an internet service provider, a photography studio and a non-profit company. I have been able to gain high skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, React Native, Flutter, testing and debugging, database management, backend basics, SEO and UX design. Additionally, I am interested in android application and software development and I have worked on a few mobile side projects by using Flutter and React Native. I also have a great eye for colors and designs with experience in UI/UX design and research.

To prove my eligibility, I would like to show you some of my previous track records:

www.ecinternet.co.za

www.bukanindalo.com

That's why I'm more than confident that I can be a great asset to your project. I would really love to have the opportunity to discuss the work details with you further. If you have any questions about my qualifications and skills, please do not hesitate to check out my CV or get in touch with me.

I am looking forward to hearing from and ultimately becoming a part of your team..

Thanks for considering,

Sincerely

Linda Kenqa
